

Orientation for Shema Society's Biblical Hebrew 101

1. What to expect from Biblical Hebrew 101.

- There are 10 classes.
- You will be able to read Biblical Hebrew by learning the aleph-Bet, vowels, basic grammar, utilizing the Sephardic pronunciation, which is used in Israel today.
- Also, you will be able to read basic words, phrases, prayers, blessings.
- Additionally, you will begin reading the weekly Parasha readings. (Parasha reading schedule is centuries' old reading schedule from the first 5 bks of the Bible.)

2. Class times & website

- Live class meets weekly on Tuesday afternoons.
- You may review the classes online throughout the week.

3. Necessary class materials:

- Print the weekly lesson from the website
- Have a 3-ring notebook with at least 6 dividers for the following:
  - o Lessons
  - o Extra Biblical Readings
  - o Parashot
  - o Vocabulary
  - o Reference material (aleph-bet chart, grammar-made-simple, etc)