

YHVH's Covenants

All the promises which YHVH declared to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, David, Moses, and including the New Covenant, were given only to the sons of Israel.

YHVH calls Israel “My People;” therefore gentiles were not intended to be the primary recipients of the Covenants!

In the TaNaKh, gentiles received salvation by joining themselves to Israel and obeying the Scriptures. The Apostolic Scriptures also declare that gentiles can receive salvation only by faith in the Messiah of Israel; and, thereby, are grafted into the “Commonwealth of Israel.”
