

^{WK49}Ki Tetze (Deut 21:10): Notice that virtually every translation translates the personal pronoun as 3mp, whereas the Hebrew is 3ms. Why?

“When thou shalt go forth to war against thine enemy, and Jehovah thy God gave him into thine hand, and thou didst take him captive,” (Smith’s Literal Translation)

“When you go out to battle against your enemies, and your God YHWH has given them into your hand, and you have taken captive its captivity,” (Literal Standard Version)

“When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take them away captive,” (New American Standard)

“When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you take captives,” (New International Version)
